Cheyenne, Wyo., May 6.—Harry Pendergraft, the pitcher, has been released by the management of the Indians. Pendergraft has several good offers. He may go to North Platte and then he may decide to return to the Utah league, where he pitched for several seasons.

Ted Green of Junction City, Kan., and a Missouri pitcher have been engaged, so that Pendergraft's going will not cripple the local team. Russell and Thomas, infielders, who have been playing in the Three I league, will arrive here in about ten days and join the Indians.

Lefty Houtz Crippled.

Word comes from Spokane that Lefty Houtz, Butte's left fielder, and the man who has been doing wonders with the bat, is crippled, and will be out of the game for an indefinite period. His loss may be keenly felt by the club, as there is no man on the team who could be more depended on when, a bit meant runs. Houtz has what baseball players call the "Charlesy Horse," a stittening of the tendons of the leg, which makes it difficult for him to run good. This, it is thought, is because of the lack of early training. Manager McCloskey hopes to bring the favorite fielder around all right in a short time, but till he does Bitly Kane, the substitute, will cover the ground out in left field. may be keenly felt by the club, as there

Pugilism.

As Others See Us.

(Lou Houseman in Chicago Inter Ocean.)
An entirely new wrinkle in puglistic ethics was recently introduced at Sait Lake City. A bout between two gents yelept Green and Donovan was in progress before an athletic club, and the referee, not approving of the languid manner in which the boxers were performing, called a hait and declared it was "no contest."

But the chief of police was on hand, an eager spectator of the fray, and did not approve of the referee's ruling. Arising in his might, the all powerful limb of the law ordered that the decision be reversed and the long end of the pureawarded to Donovan. Otherwise he (the chief) would see to it that the club would suspend operations for the future.

Fall wheat, barley, alfalfa and grass made good growth. The weather was too cool for spring wheat, oats and garden truck, but these crops made fair growth and are in good condition. Oat sowing is not yet completed. Sugar beets are coming up nicely. Potatoes are being planted. Apples and pears are coming into bloom; apricots are well set. Warm weather is now needed in all sections, and a good rain would be very beneficial in the southern section. For best brick on the market, pressed and wire-cut, go to Improved Brick company, 347 West Second South street.
